

EXISTING RESIDENTIAL STRUCTURE REPLACEMENT, ADDITION OR ASSOCIATED STRUCTURES

BCALP Guideline Language:

Replacement or modification of an existing residential structure can occur within the existing curtilage after BCALP Board acknowledgement.

Associated personal use structures may be constructed within the existing curtilage after BCALP Board acknowledgement.

DETAILS

- ◆ Deed of Easement (DOE) defines curtilage as the area surrounding the residential structure used for a yard, driveway, on lot sewage system, or other nonagricultural purposes.
 - ◆ The replacement of a residential structure existing on the eased land on the date of the granting of the easement is permitted if the preexisting structure is razed or removed and the replacement residential structure is erected within the curtilage of the residential structure it replaces.
 - ◆ All associated structures must be constructed within the curtilage and include but not limited to the following: Garages, Swimming Pools, Garden sheds, Solar panels, Outdoor furnaces and Water gardens.
 - ◆ If the residential replacement structure requires a new septic system that must be located outside the curtilage into agriculture areas, a request for relief must be made to the BCLPB.

STEPS

- ⇒ Request Easement Modification Form be mailed or emailed.
- ⇒ Review the Curtilage Agreement
- ⇒ Use the enclosed aerial photo to identify the location of the structure and include:
 - _____ On-lot septic system
 - _____ Access/driveway to structure
 - _____ Outline of planned yard area
- ⇒ Provide Municipal acknowledgement and/or approval or explanation of status.
- ⇒ Complete the Easement Modification Form in detail
- ⇒ Confirm all ACE Landowners sign and date the Easement Modification Form
- ⇒ Submit the Easement Modification Form with drawings and supporting documents including the current Conservation Plan to the Berks County Department of Agriculture office for Review and BCALP Board acknowledgement. Submissions can be mailed, dropped off in the office, or E-mailed to DeptofAg@BerksPA.gov

Construction should not begin before a letter of approval is received from the BCALP Board.
