Rule 10

These rules shall be known as Berks County Rules of Criminal Procedure and shall be cited as "B.C.R.Crim.P."

Effective January 2, 2006

ADDRESS AND TELEPHONE NUMBER CHANGES OF DEFENDANTS

Rule 15 Duty to Notify of Change in Address and/or Telephone Number

(A) Before arraignment pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 571, as a condition of bail, or his or her release without bail, a Defendant shall notify in writing the issuing authority, the District Attorney and the County bail agency of any change in said Defendant's address and/or telephone number, if any, within forty-eight (48) hours after the change of address and/or telephone number first occurs.

(B) After arraignment pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 571, as a condition of bail, or his or her release without bail, a Defendant shall notify in writing the Clerk of Courts, the District Attorney and the county bail agency of any change in said Defendant's address and/or telephone number within forty-eight (48) hours after the change of address and/or telephone number first occurs.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 16 Filing of Change of Address and/or Telephone Number

Upon receipt of notice from the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole, the Berks County Probation Office, the District Attorney, the county bail agency, or a Defendant himself or herself that the Defendant has changed his or her address and/or telephone number, the Clerk of Courts shall immediately file said change of address and/or telephone number notice in the Defendant's file, if not already filed therein, and promptly notify the criminal court computer office with court administration of said change of address and/or telephone number.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 20 Witness Fees

A witness for the Commonwealth in a criminal case shall be entitled to only one (1) witness fee per day and to mileage for only one (1) round trip per session, regardless of the number of cases for which he has been subpoenaed and regardless of the number of days he appears in court. Where the witness has been subpoenaed for more than one (1) case, his fee and mileage shall be prorated among the cases for which he has appeared during such session. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of Courts to keep a list of the witnesses and of the cases for which a witness has appeared. The Clerk of Courts shall charge and prorate the witness fee and mileage in accordance with this Rule.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 30 Computation of Time

In computing the time within which anything is to be done under these Rules or any special order, where such time does not exceed five (5) days, Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays shall be excluded, otherwise they shall be included.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 40 Priority of Criminal and Juvenile Proceedings

Whenever an attorney is scheduled to appear before more than one Judge during the same time period, the procedure as set forth by Berks County Rule of Judicial Administration (B.R.J.A.) 102 shall be followed.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 50 Presence of Prosecuting Officer

Except for good cause shown, the prosecuting police officer shall not be subject to a sequestration order at any stage of criminal proceedings. The prosecuting police officer shall be permitted to sit at counsel table and fully assist in preparation and presentation of the Commonwealth's case. Where multiple criminal dockets have been joined or where there are multiple prosecuting police officers on a single criminal docket, all prosecuting police officers shall be permitted to sit in front of the bar of the court and, to the extent space allows, at counsel table.

Effective January 2, 2006

TRIAL LIST

Rule 60 Assignment of Case to Judge

Each criminal case shall be assigned to a particular Judge of the Court of Common Pleas at arraignment. The Court of Common Pleas Judge to whom it is assigned shall handle the case throughout all its proceedings, unless reassigned by Order of the Court.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 61 Preparation of Trial List

Absent specific order of the assigned judge, the District Attorney of Berks County is solely responsible for determining when cases are brought to trial in each courtroom.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 62 Deadline for Continuances

Each Judge of the Court of Common Pleas shall from time to time designate the last day on which he or she will entertain motions for routine continuances of matters set for trial. No continuance requested after that date will be granted, unless required by law or unless the reason for the continuance first arose after the date designated.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 63 Unavailability of Counsel

If counsel in a case listed for trial expects to be unavailable on a particular day or days on which the case could be called for trial, he shall make application to the assigned Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, after advance reasonable written or oral notice of intention so to do to opposing counsel, to excuse him for that day or days. The Common Pleas Judge shall determine whether or not counsel has valid reason for being unavailable and shall either refuse or grant the request to be excused.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 113 Notice and Docketing of Orders, Decrees and Opinions

In addition to the requirements of Pa.R.Crim.P. 113 applicable to the Clerk of Courts, the Clerk of Courts shall serve written notice of every order, decree, appointment and copy of every opinion entered by the court to affected counsel of record and parties without counsel, and shall note the name of the individual who made the service, the date, time and method of service, the party served, the name of the individual who was handed the document, and the place at which service was made, or the address to which mailed, on the subject document and shall note on the docket the date, time and method of service and the name of the party served.

Effective January 2, 2006

ACCELERATED REHABILITATIVE DISPOSITION

Rule 300. Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition in Summary Cases

1. Upon request of the District Attorney of Berks County, a defendant with no prior criminal record, charged with his/her first summary offense, except offenses arising under Title 34 (Game and Wildlife Code) and Title 75 (Vehicle Code), shall be eligible for Summary Case Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (hereinafter ARD) to be supervised by the Magisterial District Judge (hereinafter MDJ) pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 300-302 and 42 Pa.C.S.A. §1520.

Rule 301. Procedures for Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition in Summary Cases before the Minor Judiciary

1. The cost of the ARD program for summary cases is $100.00.
2. The defendant shall make written application to the MDJ for admission into the summary ARD program.
 - a. Upon receipt of the application for admission into the summary ARD program, the MDJ shall forward to the District Attorney a copy of the defendant's application.
 - b. The District Attorney shall review said application and notify the MDJ of a decision to either approve or deny the application. If the District Attorney denies the application, the MDJ shall be notified of the reason(s) for denial.
3. If the District Attorney denies the defendant's application, the MDJ shall notify the defendant that his/her application has been denied and the case shall then proceed in accordance with Chapter 4 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure. If the District Attorney approves the defendant's application, the MDJ shall notify the defendant of such approval and shall set a hearing date for admission into the program.
4. A defendant accepted into ARD may be referred to any of the following programs and shall pay any costs associated with a program. If a defendant is referred to any of the following programs, the defendant shall contact the office or agency administering the program to ascertain the cost of the program and acceptable method of payment.
 - a. The Underage Drinking Program of Berks County
 - b. STOPLIFT Adult Shoplifting Intervention Program
 - c. STOPLIFT Juvenile Shoplifting Intervention Program
 - d. Adult Probation Community Service Program
 - e. Juvenile Probation Community Service Program
 - f. A recommended program subject to approval by the District Attorney.
5. Community service program hours shall be assigned in 4-hour increments and shall not exceed 40 hours for offenders referred to the Adult Probation Community Service Program or shall not exceed 20 hours for offenders referred to the Juvenile Probation Community Service Program.
6. All costs and restitution, if any, must be paid before completion of the ARD program.
7. If the MDJ deems that the defendant has met all of the requirements of the ARD program, the summary charge filed against the defendant shall be dismissed. In the MDJS, the summary case appears “ARD Open” while the defendant is on ARD. Upon completion of the ARD program, the MDJ shall record a “Dismissed by ARD” disposition to close the case. If the MDJ deems that the defendant has failed to complete all of the requirements of the ARD Program, the defendant shall be terminated from the ARD program, and the case shall proceed in accordance with Chapter 4 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure. No summary case shall remain active for purposes of ARD supervision in excess of six (6) months.

In the MDJS, “ARD Open” and “Dismissed by ARD” shall not be used for any summary case that is not processed through the District Attorney’s ARD program for summary cases.

8. Each MDJ shall submit to the District Attorney a monthly report on the disposition of all cases eligible for ARD, where applications were submitted for admission into the program. The District Attorney shall compile these monthly reports and monitor the cases. The monthly report submitted by each MDJ shall include: a record of defendants who participate in the ARD program; those who were eligible but not admitted to ARD and the reasons for not admitting the defendant; those who complete the ARD program; those who do not complete the program; and those defendants that pay in full the costs associated with the program.
9. The ARD application referred to in paragraph 2 shall be in substantially the following form:

BAIL

Rule 530 County Bail Agency

(A) BCPS Pretrial Services, is hereby designated as the county bail agency. Its duties and powers shall be as follows:

(1) To investigate and evaluate the bail risk of Defendants accused of crimes for purposes of nominal bail or percentage cash bail programs.

(2) To be surety on certain nominal bail bonds or percentage cash bail bonds.

(3) To furnish the results of such investigations to a Defendant applying for percentage cash bail or nominal bail, to the Magisterial District Judge and to the court, as may be appropriate, for release of said Defendant on nominal or percentage cash bail, such recommendation to include any special conditions for release that should be imposed in connection with such release.

(4) To keep account of the whereabouts and supervise the activities of the Defendants released on such nominal bail or percentage cash bail programs.

(5) To make reasonable rules and regulations to enable it to carry out its functions as bail agency, such rules and regulations being subject to review by the court.

(6) The sum of money furnished as percentage cash bail shall be retained by the County of Berks and applied to the cost of operating the percentage cash bail program, including, but not limited to, the cost incurred by the county bail agency in supervising and monitoring Defendants in the percentage cash bail program.

(7) Each Defendant who posts percentage cash bail shall accept, as a condition of said bail, monitoring and supervision by the county bail agency and shall report in person to the county bail agency not later than 11:00 A.M. on the first working day after his or her release on percentage cash bail and shall follow all of the supervisory and monitoring regulations of the county bail agency, so long as such Defendant remains free on percentage cash bail.

(B) Any information obtained by the county bail agency in carrying out its duties as bail agency which was obtained from, or concerns, a Defendant shall not be disclosed to any person or entity other than the Defendant, counsel for the Defendant, the Magisterial District Judge or the Court, and then only to the extent necessary or helpful in determining whether bail should be allowed, and if so, the amount and type of bail.

(C) A Magisterial District Judge or the Court may impose such special conditions for release of Defendant as deemed necessary with special conditions shall be set forth in the bail bond and may include supervision of Defendant by BCPS Pretrial Services as bail agency in accordance with bail agency rules and regulations. The county bail agency shall inform the Magisterial District Judge or the Court, as appropriate, of any violation by a Defendant of any of the terms or conditions of his or her release and such Defendant shall be brought before the Magisterial District Judge or the Court by the bail agency to determine if bail should be revoked or forfeited or additional bail should be required. If a Defendant cannot be produced or otherwise fails to appear when wanted, the Magisterial District Judge or the Court may take appropriate action for requiring compliance by Defendant, including the revocation or forfeiture of bail.

Rule 537 Professional Bondsmen

(A) A professional bondsman, licensed under Chapter 57, Subchapter B, of the Judicial Code, 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 5741-49, before acting as a surety in any proceeding pending before this court, shall post cash and/or own real estate in the amounts herein set forth and shall comply with the following procedures:

(1) Cash

- (a) A professional bondsman may post cash with the Clerk of Courts as security for bail to be written, and the clerk shall receive said cash and give the professional bondsman a receipt therefore.
- (b) The Clerk of Courts shall deposit all sums that a professional bondsman has posted with said clerk into a federally insured interest bearing account with any federally insured financial institution. The clerk shall deposit said funds, subject to withdrawal upon thirty (30) days written notice to the financial institution, or subject to such longer period of notice, not exceeding one (1) year, as the professional bondsman may direct.
- (c) The clerk shall pay the interest from time to time received on such deposit to the professional bondsman, who deposited the same, less any amount which the clerk is by law authorized to retain.
- (d) A professional bondsman may, at any time, upon ten (10) days notice to the clerk, and upon presentation and surrender of the clerk's receipt for the sum deposited, withdraw the whole or any part of the cash deposited, not required for bail then written and outstanding on the security thereof, less any penalty for early withdrawal charged by the financial institution in which the clerk has deposited said sum, and less any amount which the clerk is, by law, authorized to retain. If the professional bondsman does not withdraw the entire sum, which he or she deposited, the clerk shall issue to the professional bondsman a new receipt for the remaining balance of the deposit.
- (e) A professional bondsman, may, at any time, increase the cash on deposit with the clerk. Whenever the professional bondsman increases his or her cash on deposit, he or she shall surrender the clerk's receipt for the sum therefore deposited and the clerk shall issue to the professional bondsman a new receipt for the new total balance on deposit.
- (f) If a professional bondsman loses or is otherwise unable to produce the clerk's receipt for cash deposited, he or she shall petition the court and the court, upon being satisfied that the receipt cannot be produced, may direct the clerk to issue to the professional bondsman a duplicate receipt for the amount deposited. The clerk shall clearly and legibly mark or stamp the duplicate receipt "DUPLICATE" and shall note thereon the date on which the original receipt was issued, the date on which the duplicate was delivered, and the date of the court order authorizing said duplicate.

- (g) Whenever a professional bondsman desires to write bail on the security of cash deposited with the clerk and thereby act as surety in any case pending before the Magisterial District Judge, he or she shall file with the Magisterial District Judge a copy of the clerk's current receipt for said cash, and in addition, an affidavit sworn to before any official authorized to administer oaths, setting forth the then total amount of cash then on deposit with the clerk, the total amount of bail offered and accepted on the security of said cash and still in force, the amount of bail then desired to be written, and the total fee, premium and/or charge which the bondsman has received and/or is entitled to receive for the bail about to be written.
- (h) Whenever a professional bondsman desires to write bail on the security of cash deposited with the clerk and thereby act as surety in any cash pending in the Court of Common Pleas, he or she shall file with the clerk an affidavit sworn before any official authorized to administer oaths, setting forth the then total amount of cash then on deposit with the clerk, the total amount of bail offered and accepted on the security of said cash, and still in force, the amount of bail then desired to be written, and the total fee, premium and/or charge which the bondsman has received and/or is entitled to receive for the bail about to be written.
- (i) No bail shall be accepted from any professional bondsman at any time when the total amount of bail then written on the security of cash deposited with the clerk is, or when added to the bail about to be written, will exceed ten times the cash then on deposit.

(2) Real Estate

- (a) A professional bondsman who desires to write bail against real estate shall record the deed or deeds for such real estate in the county or counties where the same is situated and shall file with the Clerk of Courts a statement, under oath, approved by the court, listing the real estate owned by him or her and situated in Pennsylvania. Such statement shall also set forth:
 - i. The description of each tract of real estate, its location by county, municipality and post office address, if any, the deed book volume and page where a copy of the deed is recorded and the acreage or square footage contained in each tract;
 - ii. An averment that the professional bondsman filing the statement is the sole equitable and legal owner of said real estate and the exact name in which said bondsman holds title;
 - iii. The fair market value of each tract of real estate as of the date of said statement as determined by an experienced real estate broker and appraiser. The professional bondsman shall attach a copy of said appraisal to the statement;

- iv. The cost of each tract of real estate when first acquired, the latest assessed valuation for county tax purposes, the mortgages, liens and encumbrances against the real estate, and the balance unpaid on each encumbrance as of the date of the statement;
 - v. The net value of said real estate. (The total fair market value of all tracts of real estate less the total of all encumbrances against the same.)
- (b) The professional bondsman shall file the statement required by subsection (a) hereof before writing any bail on the basis of said real estate, and thereafter on or before January 31st of each year. If the ownership of any tract or tracts of real estate set forth on said statement changes after the statement has been filed, or if the mortgages, liens and encumbrances increase in principal amount after the statement has been filed, the professional bondsman shall file a revised statement setting forth each such change not later than ten (10) days after such change first occur.
 - (c) Whenever a professional bondsman desires to write bail on the security of said real estate and thereby act as surety in any case pending before a Magisterial District Judge, he or she shall file with the Magisterial District Judge a copy of his or her latest statement filed with the Clerk of Courts pursuant to subsection (a) hereof, and in addition an affidavit sworn to before any official authorized to administer oaths, setting forth the then total amount of bail offered and accepted against said real estate and still in force, the amount of bail then desired to be written, and the total fee, premium and/or charge which the bondsman has received and/or is entitled to receive for the bail then about to be written.
 - (d) Whenever a professional bondsman desires to write bail on the security of said real estate and thereby act as surety in any case pending in the Court of Common Pleas, he or she shall file, in addition to the statement required to be filed with the Clerk of Courts pursuant to subsection (a) hereof, an affidavit sworn to before any official authorized to administer oaths, setting forth the then total amount of bail offered and accepted against said real estate, and still in force, the amount of bail then desired to be written, and the total fee, premium and/or charge which the bondsman has received and/or is entitled to receive for the bail then about to be written.
 - (e) No bail shall be accepted from any professional bondsman whenever the total amount of bail written on the security of the professional bondsman's real estate is, or when added to the bail then about to be written will, exceed five (5) times the net value of said real estate as the net value has been determined pursuant to subparagraph (A)(2)(a) hereof.

(B) Neither the Clerk of Courts nor any Magisterial District Judge shall accept bail from any professional bondsman if the fee, premium and/or charge received, or to be received, by said professional bondsman for writing said bail exceeds the amount from time to time authorized by the Judicial Code.

Comment to (B):

The Judicial Code presently limits the fees which can be charged by a professional bondsman to ten (10%) percent of the first one hundred ($100.00) dollars of bail written in any case and five (5%) percent of any amount in excess of one hundred ($100.00) dollars. Section 5748(a).

(C) The Magisterial District Judge shall make the copy of the receipt and the affidavit filed by a professional bondsman pursuant to subsection (A)(1)(g) hereof, or the statement and affidavit filed with him by a professional bondsman pursuant to subsection (A)(2)(c) hereof, a part of the proceedings in the case in which the same was filed and shall forward said receipt copy and affidavit, or said statement and affidavit with the other papers in said case to this court at the same time as the transcript of the proceedings in said case are returned to this court, and the same shall become a part of the record of the case.

(D) Whenever any bail written by a professional bondsman has been forfeited, the professional bondsman shall not write any additional bail until he or she had made settlement for the forfeiture obligation and paid the same or the forfeiture has been remitted by the court.

(E) A professional bondsman shall not accept or receive, in addition to the fee permitted by law, any cash, securities, assets and/or property of any kind, whether to secure compliance with the terms of the bail or for any other reason relating to his or her writing bail.

(F) No bail shall be accepted from any professional bondsman at any time when such bondsman is not in full compliance with the provisions of this rule.

Rule 576 Papers Presented by Persons Unauthorized by State Rules

Any papers or documents that are submitted on behalf of a Defendant by someone other than the Defendant's attorney of record as defined by Pa. R.Crim.P. 120 or by the Defendant pro se where the Defendant is represented by counsel, shall be accepted by the Clerk of Courts as a communication only and no further action shall be taken. Such papers will not be forwarded to the assigned Common Pleas Judge for further consideration. A copy of the papers accepted will be sent to the Defendant's attorney of record or the Defendant if no attorney has entered an appearance for the Defendant. The following notice shall be attached to the returned copies:

NOTICE:

The attached papers were accepted on (date). These papers were not forwarded to the assigned judge due to failure to the failure to comply with B.R.J.A. 401.1, Pa. R.Crim.P. 576 and B.C.R.Crim. P. 576.

Comment: This rule serves to clarify B.R.J.A. 401.1 for criminal cases. The rule is written to be consistent with Pa. R.Crim.P. 576(A)(4) and (C), its main purpose is to add the requirement of the written notice to be included on returned documents.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 580 Evidence of Summary Offenses at Omnibus Pretrial Hearings

(A) Unless specifically ordered by a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas after a motion by a Defendant, the Commonwealth shall have no duty to present evidence to establish a prima facie case for summary offenses at a hearing on an Omnibus Pretrial Motion. As long as at least one Felony or Misdemeanor charge remains pending after the hearing, all summary charges shall remain pending and be scheduled for trial or other disposition.

(B) Should all Felony and Misdemeanor charges be dismissed after an Omnibus Pretrial Hearing, the Court shall either schedule a disposition hearing on the summary charges or remand the summary charges to the appropriate Magisterial District Judge for disposition.

Effective January 2, 2006

COSTS

Rule 706 Costs to be Paid by Defendant

In all criminal cases where the Defendant shall have been sentenced to pay the costs of the proceeding, or where by order the court has directed the Defendant to pay certain costs, the Clerk of Courts shall deliver a copy of the bill of costs as stated to the adult probation and parole office of the court. The amount of the bill of costs as rendered shall be the amount to be collected from the Defendant, subject, however, to the right by any party to have the costs retaxed in accordance with the rules of court.

Effective January 2, 2006

Rule 706.1 Taxation of Costs

Exceptions

Decision

Appeal

Collection

(A) A bill of costs drawn, certified and filed in accordance with these rules, shall be taxed in the first instance by the Clerk of Courts.

(B) Exceptions to such bill of costs must be filed with the Clerk of Courts, accompanied by an affidavit of the truth of the allegations made therein within five (5) days after such bill of costs is filed with the Clerk of Courts. Within five (5) days after the exceptions are filed, the Clerk of Courts shall issue a rule for retaxation and shall forthwith notify the parties of the time and date for hearing on such retaxation. The hearing shall be held not less than five (5) days after notice is served on the parties.

(C) The Clerk of Courts shall serve a copy of his decision on the parties within five (5) days of the hearing. Any party may file an appeal to the court from such decision or retaxation within ten (10) days after receipt thereof by filing a specification of items to which objection is taken along with the grounds for such objection in the office of the Clerk of Courts. Upon filing of such appeal, the Clerk of Courts shall file a written report in which he shall set forth the facts upon which he based his decision. Objections not raised before the Clerk of Courts shall be deemed abandoned.

(D) Neither a rule for retaxation nor an appeal therefrom shall prevent the collection of the costs, but upon application, the court may direct that the costs to which objections have been taken are not to be paid without order of court.

(E) At any time prior to payment, either party may file exceptions to any costs taxed by the Clerk of Courts other than those shown on a party's bill of costs. such exceptions shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the truth of the allegations contained therein. Thereafter, the proceedings for retaxation shall be in accordance with the rules pertaining to the retaxation of items listed on a party's bill of costs.

Effective January 2, 2006
