Berks County to Resume Summoning Jurors for 2020

READING – Beginning, the week of May 18, 2020, the Berks County Court of Common Pleas will begin mailing jury summonses to potential jurors for upcoming trial dates. The summonses will contain designated reporting dates beginning June 15, 2020. Summonses will be mailed in the anticipation of the Court's ability to safely resume jury trials. The Court will continue to monitor COVID-19 conditions and modify plans as necessary. When jury trials resume, the Court will be taking extra precautions to ensure proper social distancing and sanitization practices.

The Court and Jury Services have compiled a list of Frequently Asked Questions to assist potential jurors through this process. Please visit www.berksjury.com for this list and additional information.

The Berks County Court of Common Pleas appreciates and values the role of jurors in the justice system. We thank you for your anticipated cooperation.
